Goes to Metro

IT IS reported unofficially that the ban on children attending motion picture theaters will be modified on next Saturday, and, perhaps, entirely lifted in some districts. While no authoritative ruling on the sub-ject has been issued by the Depart-ment of Health, it is being rumored that some of the photoplay houses in the central part of the city will be permitted to admit juveniles after October 2.

By the Photoplay Editor

Many a time and oft has the revue soothed the rubber-tired business man in the legitimate theater. But heretofore there has been no such picture production, barring a few wild-cat ventures to which the stigma of piracy was easily attached. Now comes President Spoor, of Essanay, with an anaouncement that he will present Charles Chaplin in the Essanay-Chaplin Revue of 1916. It will be in five reels, and released through the General Film Service. Three films have been drawn on for the revue: "His New Job," "The Tramp" and "A Night Out." Just how they are to be interlocked in the "new" feature is not explained.
